United we stand and divided we fall
My dear folks realize and recall
No one is safe alone in this alienated world
More we are close more is the safe thread

No one ever enjoyed the true pleasures
Paining minds and hearts of others
You say that you have a unique culture
It can't be true alien is not you or few of you

We love and speak in the same way
How come you can drift us away?
We have life in common for solidarity
Why do you invite disparity

Love lost its way
United we say
Unity is mandatory
Separation is purgatory

Oh! Modern man in the barbaric fashion
Weed out the thoughts of partition
Sow the seeds of love and compassion
No one can endure eternal pain and grief
This is what we share in brief.
