Love and respect for all those
Who are life saviors!
Strikingly they appear as aliens
in their shielded attire.

Head protected in a pellucid helmet,
A long dungaree, like an astronaut,
Hand in gloves and mask on face,
Heavy shoes share the weight
And burden of their heavy hearts!

Away from Family and friends,
Devoid of comfort and play;
Yet with a faith overhead and
Strength in heart, they work
Tirelessly, round the clock.

Krishna advised Arjuna rightly:
“Do your duty in present
Don’t bother about the result”!
They too follow the command of Krishna, in their conscious!

Their presence scares me and I pray
Not to fell into their hands!
But when Corona like Lucious Possess you...
You literally fall in love with these life Saviours!
