You are far away from me Oh dear,
It is my longingness to see you, I can't bear.

How you got so close to me, I never knew
You soon became among my loved ones, who are few.

You belong from plain, I from hill
Our first meeting memory still gives me thrill.

Still I remember our first meeting,
You stood at the top of the hill; waiting.

Suddenly the things changed and we got apart,
I never thought; even in dream that we will go far.

Circumstances so created, you never met me anymore
But you will come; I know when I will be no more.

I am losing my patience by long wait, Oh dear
The thought of never seeing you is my only fear.

Wherever you are, stay happy; I pray to God
May God remove all the things from your life, those are odd.

Your memories with its arrival gifts me tears,
Doesn't your heart ever felt, to be here?

I'll be longing for you unto my death
I believe we will be together in this lifetime or next.

I am longing for you Oh dear
I am longing for you Oh dear.
