

'LOVE AND '

Mrs. Gayatri Singh
Ahinsa Vihar,
Bhopal (M. P.)

The desires of love, which are hidden in the inner heart with full of passion, who knows - they are what ?

There is a little bit difference between love and lust If gets in a boundation like a calm river with full of its charm full of its youth , full of its grace, reside in uncouncted drops of love
It is true love

And if breaks all the boundaries to seek for so called love in the outer world then , it is like a flooded river breaks all its boundaries, limitations there is no correct path of it it is not useful for anybody It wanders everywhere and eventually destroy everything

As calm river changed into a floody river, same as true love changed into lust

And it never ends, goes with the person to take a new birth With new life , for becoming a new end.....
