When sadness blurs thy eyes
And vexes the mind gone awry,
What calms thy nerves?What thought?
``It's the innocent face of my child",
Replied my friend, my guide.

When thou feel lonely
And foreign among many,
What keeps thee merry?What Comfort?
``It is the love of my mother",
``Her comforting words",replied my friend.

When thou art in a foreign land
lost in abundance and cobwebs aplenty,
What keeps thy feet to earth?What belief?
``It is the pride for my motherland",
``My home",replied my soul-mate.

When brothers fight with brothers
`Daddies' swagger and blood spills,
What keeps thee so friendly?What relation?
``It is the common chord of humanity",
``Non-violence",replied my split-half.

When pride demurs,envy blackens
Restlessness arrests thy soul,
What makes thee so common?Quite?
My friend smiled and said to me,
``God has made us in his own image
It is He who our soul salvage."
``I?"cried!!
