

Tiny World

Sreeja K Nair

Got a new world
With full of happiness..but... when I met it first it's crying
Yes it's crying.but hearing that I felt a sort of happiness which no one can explain....
Later a weep is enough for me to get upset ...
Now my aim is to make it always happy..
Till now I didn't understand, why I enjoy and happy for the FIRST CRY....
May be by that cry the little world wants to tell me that Mom I am here to sooth your pain and if u cry me too.....
