

LIFE IS A PLEASURE, LIFE IS A GAME

Suparna Banerjee
Masters in English
Ravenshaw University
Cuttack,
Odisha, India

Life is a pleasure, when life is taken as a game
But when reality comes, it drags one to hell.

Life is a struggle, to make one puzzle
Those who ignore the fact, be ready for trouble.

To achieve something is full of hurdle,
Situation so arises, it makes us addle.

If one can't get anything from life, they become hopeless
They are to their loved ones faithless.

Try to get something from life,
As it comes once, not twice.

Life becomes easier for the rich
But for poor, it is full of cry and fear.

Don't think, life is full of goodness and it is impressive
As problems comes always with its friends and relatives.

Just stand strong in any circumstances,
Toil hard and wait the time to come and delete all bad times.

As nothing is impossible to human beings,
If they want, they can bring anything to their knees.

One should live life as a gainer
Just begin from tomorrow to be a winner.

Abstract

The poem is all about the hardships and struggle which each and everyone has to face in life. Life is something which needs sacrifice and the path for success in life is full of thorns. Those who toil hard become gainer and those who can't become looser. This poem depicts the harsh realities of life and motivates to overcome all difficulties.