

WHAT THEY SAY

By Ssendi Emmanuel

They say silence is golden
But they also say
Too much of anything is bad
I don't know who
But they say

They say hard work pays
But they also say
Work without play makes
Jack a dull lad
I don't know who
But they say

They say to live your life
You must leave your comfort zone
What if your comfort zone is your life?
Explore the unknown to find new wonders
I wonder where the unknown is
They say a lot of things
I don't know who
But they say

They say this and
They say that, I
Don't know which one
I should abide with
I am perplexed by their sayings.
