May you see her heart awhile
Pain was then my own profile

They asked me questions two
How smart conditions I do

He said then barely to me
I do not know to think free

If the notion of thy brain
Wonder how it does constrain

Knowing a well-known cause in hell
Do the wrong what you did spell

In the glass of hour to spend
Staying in passionate woe to mend!

Red was the day of thundering wars,
Stretched things were drawn to stars

Courage is still in rings of weeds
That circle needs fair wishes and deeds!
