We know
knowing you is easy in pages of library you exist those chlorinated pages are well preserved And libraries enrich themselves by keeping you well-reserved..
We take a glance and sob(sic!) Adoring the librarian for his adorable job!! for he bibliophiles your brotherens all around as of vast oceans surround... we show our kids
vivid hued glued livid pictures of you that we snap
we admire
and project ourselves to be your guttersnipes
Yes, we know you...
But
Hardly we feel you Hardly do we live you Hardly do we feel the sun Hardly do we live the jungle You go upto the tip of a tree for your dwelling
We dig and uproot that tree as our desire go swelling But yes..
we know you
we know you
we no you
we no you
we show you

we show you
we sow you
we sow you
you are not our own
But ...we own you
we own you
we won you
we won you
we on you
we on you...
